Two-storey house with multiple possibilities

Located in one of the most dynamic areas of Manacor, this property represents an excellent opportunity for those looking for an investment with potential, whether for housing, commerce or both. It is a two-storey house, bright and well distributed, which offers the possibility to reform and personalise to the buyer's taste.

Ground Floor - Commercial Space

Business: A large versatile space, ideal for setting up any type of business. Thanks to its layout and size, it can be easily adapted to different professional activities. It also has its own bathroom, which adds convenience for both workers and customers.

Warehouse: Spacious storage area, perfect for organising stock and keeping the business tidy and functional.

Top floor - Dwelling with natural light

Bedrooms: Two double bedrooms, bright, well ventilated and ideally oriented to take advantage of natural light throughout the day.

Living room: A spacious and cosy room, perfect for family gatherings or to create a comfortable resting space.

Dining room: A well-defined, functional area with direct access to the kitchen, ideal for sharing family moments.

Kitchen: Although in need of renovation, its structure allows you to imagine a modern, practical and well-equipped kitchen.

Bathroom: Full bathroom which, although it requires refurbishment, offers good space and distribution to turn it into a comfortable area.

Terrace: A perfect outdoor corner to relax in the open air, sunbathe or enjoy dinners in the warm Mallorcan evenings.

If you are looking for a property with the possibility of giving it your own touch, and in a key location, this house in Manacor is your opportunity. Whether for living, business or investment, it has everything you need to become a project with a bright future.
